

Reading at Home

When I think of all the books left for me to read, I am certain of future happiness!

If you read a book at home, when you are finished, complete the sheet below and put it in our Reading for Pleasure log box – you might be in with a chance to win a family activity!
Show your teacher your record as you will get a housepoint for every record you bring in. Make sure you get a grown up at home to sign to say that you've read the book!

My name is _____ (child's name)
